Definitions

I. The Term ‘approved’ means that the GotRT has reviewed and deems the relevant to be in effect and to be the applicable rule.

II. The Term ‘shall’ means that the relevant will be so.

III. The Term ‘may’ means that the relevant might be so, as long as the relevant terms are met, or the parties relevant agree.

A. Not to be confused with the month of May, which is to be recognized as being the fifth month of the standard calder year.

IV. The Terms ‘agreed’, ‘agreed to’, ‘agrees to’, ‘accepts’, and ‘accepted’ means that the relevant parties and/or people do submit themselves to the terms as they are written.

V. The Term ‘regulations’, specifically when relating to the GotRT, shall mean any known and approved by the President, Wyatt Kline, and by the popular majority of the members of the GotRT, either by verbal convention or mutual agreement.

A. The use of the Term ‘approved’, as it appears above, is defined the same way as in Definition ‘I’.

B. When not related to the GotRT, the Term ‘regulations’ means any applicable law from the local authority.

1. The Term ‘local authority’, as it relates to this Definition means the State/County/Country government, an officer of the law, an institute rule or an enforcer thereof, building official statute or enforcer thereof, the standing regulation of any administration or enforcer thereof, and any party from whom the GotRT agrees to submit to.

VI. The Term ‘relevant people/parties’ means all those which are required under the agreement to be present or acknowledged.

VII. The Term ‘swear’ or ‘affirm’[if the person is avoidant to swearing] means that those who do ‘swear’ or ‘affirm’ willingly bind themselves to the constraint and limitations to this agreement.

VIII. The Term ‘drugs’ means any of the following:

A. vapes, JUULS, dap pens, and the like,

B. “edibles” or “edible gummies”,

C. All dangerous controlled substances as so designated and prohibited by United States Statute,

D. All chemicals which release toxic vapors,

E. Any and all alcoholic beverages,

F. Anabolic steroids, and/or

G. Any substance that is a "look-alike" to any of the above.

IX. The Term ‘affiliate[s]’ means any individual or human representative of an interested party for the GotRT.

A. These ‘affiliates’ must be recorded and approved to do business with GotRT by the GotRT President or deputy President.

X. The Term ‘veto’ means to oppose the approval of a statute, document, docket, bill or order, and to approve its dismissal.

XI. The Term ‘majority’ means half of the assembly, rounded to the nearest whole number, plus one member.

XII. The Term ‘supermajority’ means two-thirds of the assembly, rounded to the nearest whole number, plus one member.

XIII. The Term ‘out-of-country’ means to be, or to be in a place outside the land borders of the United States or any US Military base, and especially any place in which the US Constitution applies and is in effect.

XIV. The Term ‘sign’ means to write ones personal signature the prescribed line.

XV. The Term ‘stamp’ means to press the acknowledged GotRT stamp with ink onto the approved area.

The Constitution

By the will of us five, and for the goodwill of us unto ourselves, we hereby declare this paper to be the Constitution of the Gentlemen of the Round Table.

I. Elections and Offices

A. On the fourth Thursday of every sixth calendar month, a meeting of the GotRT shall be held. The sole intent of this specific meeting shall be the election of a President. This meeting will require the full, in-person attendance of all GotRT members, and will also be limited to them.

1. The office of the President shall be responsible for the calling of order, the starting and ending of meetings, announcing important events, maintaining communication between members, and from members to and from affiliates, and approving the documents as they are proposed by the member who holds the office of the Lawyer.

a) This person shall be addressed by any of the following during a formal Friday:

(1) Their last name, preceded by the title, ‘Mr./Ms./Mrs. President’ [whichever is most appropriate for the relevant person],

(2) The title ‘Mr./Ms./Mrs. President’ [whichever is most appropriate for the relevant person], or more simply as,

(3) “President”

B. On the fourth Thursday of every twelfth calendar month, a meeting of the GotRT shall be held. The sole intent of this specific meeting shall be the appointment and approval of the offices. These offices may be varied and change over time, as needed, but they must always, at a minimum, have The office of the Lawyer, The office of the Clerk, and The office of the Deputy President. The incumbent President shall have the sole, absolute authority to decree who shall inherit and gain an office. This however, may be veto-ed by a majority vote of GotRT members.

1. The office of the Lawyer shall be responsible for the drafting and maintenance of all GotRT legal documents, the formalization and permeant keeping of records after they are submitted by the member who holds the office of the Clerk, and shall be advisor to all members when dealing with pertinent to the wellbeing of the GotRT, its members, and its affiliates.

a) This person shall be addressed by any of the following during a formal Friday:

(1) Their last name, preceded by the title, ‘Mr./Ms./Mrs. Lawyer’ [whichever is most appropriate for the relevant person],

(2) The title ‘Mr./Ms./Mrs. Lawyer’ [whichever is most appropriate for the relevant person], or more simply as,

(3) “Lawyer”

b) The documents of that the Lawyer maintains shall always be held on the person of Tristan Reed, even if he does not hold the office of the Lawyer.

2. The Office of the Clerk shall be responsible for the keeping of meeting and congregation minutes, and the submitting of them in their entirety to the member who holds the Office of the Lawyer.

a) This person shall be addressed by any of the following during a formal Friday:

(1) Their last name, preceded by the title, ‘Mr./Ms./Mrs. Clerk’ [whichever is most appropriate for the relevant person],

(2) The title ‘Mr./Ms./Mrs. Clerk’ [whichever is most appropriate for the relevant person], or more simply as,

(3) “Clerk”

3. The Office of the Deputy President shall be responsible for the upkeep of morals and moral fiber within the members of the GotRT, the maintenance of order during meeting debates [described in Section II, Sub-Sub-Section ‘d’, line ‘1’], and shall serve in place of the office of the President until they return to a personal state in which they can perform the duties of the office of the President, or a new Presidential election is held, whichever is sooner.

a) This person shall be addressed by any of the following during a formal Friday:

(1) Their last name, preceded by the title, ‘Mr./Ms./Mrs. Deputy’ [whichever is most appropriate for the relevant person],

(2) The title ‘Mr./Ms./Mrs. Deputy’ [whichever is most appropriate for the relevant person], or more simply as,

(3) “Deputy”

4. To create a new Office, a special meeting must be called which does not land or overlap with a prior scheduled event. The full attendance of GotRT members must be present, and this meeting must be limited to them alone.

a) The procedure will flow as described in Section II, Sub-Section 1, with the sole addition that the incumbent President must stamp/sign either a notice of approval or veto on the docket, document, or bill of which the proposed office is written by the GotRT member who holds the Office of the Lawyer.

II. Meetings and their procedures

A. Every Friday of every calendar month, and only when all GotRT members are available and present, may the GotRT member who holds the office of the President call a meeting to order.

1. The meetings, on a regular schedule and timeline, shall be executed the following order and methodology;

a) The meeting shall be called to order by three taps of the gavel, and all present shall rise to their feet, if able.

b) All shall then be seated after two consecutive taps of the gavel.

c) The President shall take roll either by visual search or by way of directly asking for presence of each GotRT member.

(1) If any member is not present at the time of roll-call, or a member needs to, for any reason, abstain from attending the meeting, the meeting shall be declared concluded, signified by thee three consecutive taps of the gavel.

d) After all GotRT members are confirmed to be present, then a member may stand and present any business that relates to the GotRT, its members, or its affiliates.

(1) Unless otherwise noted, this is where all matters of importance shall be discussed and debated.

e) After each and every conclusion and verbal agreement, all members shall, if they personally approve, sign on the signature line which is provided for them.

(1) The GotRT member who holds the office of the President is excluded, as he is the one who vetos or approves dockets and documents.

(2) The GotRT President is also not to be swayed either to approving or veto-ing any particular document, agreement, or bill. He shall listen intently to the debate between other GotRT members, and shall wait to speak until after he stamps/writes his approval or veto signature on the line prescribed for the intended conclusion.

f) After all signatures are written and confirmed by the GotRT member who hold the Office of the Lawyer, then the President may stamp/write his

III. Weapons at meeting and harming of a member/affiliate

A. No member or affiliate shall bring harm to another member, or to an affiliate, nor by his inaction allow another member or affiliate to be harmed.

1. The above rule is void if an action requires harming a member or affiliate, only when it is to save a greater number of members or affiliates lives.

B. The two above rules are only valid within the borders of lands subject to the Constitution of the United States of America, otherwise, a full meeting of GotRT members must have been made to make an agreement of what the applicable rule shall be. This agreement between members, which may apply to affiliates, will last for as long as all members are out-of-country.

C. No item shall be brought to a congregation or meeting of the Gentlemen of the Round table, which is to be used to inflict harm on another member or affiliate of the GotRT. The use of the hands, feet, or any other such appendage shall not be used in a harmful manner or mannerism as well.

IV. Meetings and Formal Fridays

of a crime which is regarded as a misdemeanor or worse, may be allowed admittance to the GotRT membership, after a unanimous vote from all previously admitted GotRT members during a meeting.

1. These new members may not join immediately into any office, and must attend at least three meetings and sign their name on at least ten documents with meaning to add approval from the GotRT, prior to being eligible to hold an office.

VI. Utterance of 'the phrase'

A. No member or affiliate may utter 'the phrase', which has already been made known to all people whom regularly attend GotRT meetings and are in contact with GotRT members.

B. Any new member or affiliate may be told what 'the phrase' is, only once, and be told of their new solemn affirmation to never say it.

C. All members affirm that they know, to an accurate record as is to be maintained verbally, what the verbally.

VII. Drug use

A. Every member and affiliate swears, or affirms, to not consume or take any drug or similarly mind-altering substance within forty-eight hours of a planned meeting.

VIII. Document nullification

A. Any document or agreement which the GotRT members unanimously shall be nullified, besides this Constitution and its amendments to be, shall be marked with the following in red lettering:

1. "This document s deemed null and void, under the authority of the Gentlemen of the Round table"

B. This shall be followed by the stamp of the GotRT, stamped by the President, and signed by the GotRt member who holds the Office of the Lawyer with the date of the nullification approval date.

IX. Amendments

A. To amend this constitution, a new docket must be approved under a special meeting which shall not overlap with any prior made dates and printed to be known as an amendment document in its title.

1. These amendments must be approved by all GotRT members, and stamped by the President in the prescribed area.

2. These amendments may be considered as part of the Constitution, and shall be effective as so.

3. These amendments may only be made null by a new amendment.

X. Dissolution

A. To dissolve the institution of the Gentlemen of the Round Table, every GotRT member must sign on a document which is to be provided by the GotRT member who holds the Office of the Lawyer, and the President must stamp his approval onto the provided space.

1. The signing of this meeting must be attended by each GotRT member, and every known affiliate must be alerted that the intent of the members is to dissolve all partnerships, and to not reform, even under a different name.

2. The sole intent of the paper which is to be provided by the GotRT member who holds the Office of the Lawyer shall be to set the terms of the dissolution of the institution of the Gentlemen of the Round Table, and its assets if the GotRT itself has accumulated any.
