Constitutional Amendments

Preamble, to be regarded as effective regulation

These several amendments shall reflect how the Gentlemen of the Round Table unanimously agree how the Constitution of the GotRT shall henceforth be read and understood, until a newer cycle of amendments or additions shall say otherwise. If such should happen, then the newer cycle of amendments shall take precedence as the standing regulation of the GotRT. If the standing statute is nullified or otherwise deemed as in-effective as a GotRT regulation through an approved channel, then the most recently approved standing of GotRT regulations shall henceforth take precedence.

Any and all amendments, additions, and modifications made by this document to the GotRT Constitution shall incur, on the original Constitution printed page, an imprint of the approved GotRT stamp to the left side of the text which has been amended or removed by this document, with a written footnote directing the reader to this document, and if room allows, a detailed label of where to find the specific amendment in this document.

Any and all definitions, sections, and terms of the GotRT Constitution, if the relevant regulation or definition under the original Constitution does not differ from an amendment, removal, or addition as per this document, shall apply to this document. If a regulation, term, or definition has been changed, added, or removed by this document, then how the regulation is set forth in this document shall be how it should apply to this document and all others which are hereafter approved by a full meeting the GotRT members, unless a new cycle of amendments is set forth by the members of the GotRT, which differs as well.

Summary, not to be regarded as effective regulation

Hereafter written, are the amendments to the definitions set forth in the original GotRT Constitution, as well as amendments to the various sections set forth as standing regulations by the constitution. Hereafter and henceforth, until again amended, these amendments will be regarded as standing GotRT regulation.
