Definitions

The definitions applicable to this document shall be those effectively set out by the GotRT Constitution, by any amending documents to the GotRT Constitution or its amendments, and by the following. The following is to be recognized as the precedent definitions henceforth.

1. The phrase ‘GotRT workday’ shall mean any day recognized on a known GotRT calendar which has been duly approved by all GotRT officers at least monthly, to be accurate to the needs for which the GotRT must provide work hours and resources.
2. The phrase ‘GotRT Officer’ means any GotRT member who has been approved to hold a congregationally approved Office.
3. The phrase ‘human rights’ means the rights held by people, as described by applicable law, as described by the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and by the details of any GotRT regulation which applies.
4. The phrase ‘discrimination’ will be defined by the United States Code, Title 42.
5. The phrases ‘precedent’ and ‘known precedent’ means that which is either known by GOTRT to be standing regulation or that which is written statute approved by GOTRT, which shall be the preferred definition of precedent.
   5.1. The following discussions and disputes shall be brought to the Office of the Lawyer for definitive ruling;
      5.1.1. Dispute of the interpretation of GOTRT regulation as written,
      5.1.2. Dispute on the meaning of words used and their intended meaning,
      5.1.3. Official powers given to and for each Office,
      5.1.4. And what appropriations are expected by the wording of GOTRT regulation.
   5.2. All enacted interpretations by the Office of the Lawyer may be subject to review by a full congregation of voting GotRT members, barring the Lawyer.
6. The title of ‘GISA-GOTRT sponsor’ means the one who is charged with the proctoring of the GotRT group and handling it in its effects while under GISA’s supervision.
7. The phrase ‘executive orders’ are orders issued by the President or the Deputy which are decrees demanding action, and are to be followed so long as they violate no law, regulation, or human’s rights.
   7.1. These orders may not:
      7.1.1. Be manipulative of another office, Officer, or their respective powers,
      7.1.2. Infringe on any person or organizations rights,

7.1.3. Limit the ability of an office to function without just cause,

7.1.4. Be privately given to anyone,

7.1.5. Be indefinite in time,

7.1.5.1. This definition stands to mean that no executive order may last more than fifty consecutive days in its effects.

7.1.6. Nor be indefinite in their meaning and intention.

7.2. The form of an executive order must be as defined by the office of the President, and be consistent.

8. The phrase ‘management’ shall henceforth mean the organizational plan by which a body operates, or the actions of actors on behalf of such plan.
9. The phrase ‘employ’ shall henceforth mean to jointly sign a contract with a person of work for pay, and to regard that person as an employee.
10. The phrase ‘tenure’ shall henceforth mean a pay increase of five tenths their previous pay, and a guarantee that one shall not be fired solely to be replaced in their position, unless such person commits an offending act.
11. The phrase ‘offending act’ means an act committed by a person, group, or on their behalf, which is harmful in any manner to any other body within the GotRT’s purview.
12. The phrase ‘probation’ shall henceforth mean that a person loses all powers, offices, and management titles.

2. Parliamentary Procedure

2.1. The parliamentary procedure which should be applied during any planned or un-planned GotRT meeting should henceforth be as follows,

- The President will tap the gavel three times, calling the meeting to order.

- The Deputy will then ensure that all people required to be present are present.

  - Should the Deputy, or any GotRT member not be accounted for, the President will then, at that time, tap the gavel four times, executively adjourning the meeting.

- The Clerk will then announce any old business regarding members which still needs attention.

  - Should there be any old business announced, the Lawyer will, in junction with the congregation, complete all work needed, until it is decided that the business is done, or should be bypassed, to be decided by voting GotRT members.

- The Clerk will then announce all new business, and ensure all required people have read any documents pertinent to the completion thereof. The Lawyer will collect all signatures required, as well as the GotRT Stamp from the President.

- The Deputy will then announce any person who wishes to join as a member. Should that person be qualified and no member voice a rejection, that person shall be inducted as a voting member of the GotRT.

- The President will then announce any election which is caused to be held due to an vacant office or creation

- The President Pro Tempore will then announce any person who wishes to join the GotRT pool of affiliates, and for what reason.

  - Should any person have a valid request to join the GotRT pool of affiliates, the congregation shall;

    - Deliberate admittance and details thereof, and

- Place any restrictions to be placed on the person, should they be permitted to be admitted, and

- Give the Lawyer basic instruction to draft a contract for their admittance, and

- Should the congregation unanimously agree to accept the new affiliate, the person shall sign their name on the prescribed line on the Proclamation of the GotRT Group of Affiliates, raising them to the rank of GotRT affiliate.

- The President Pro Tempore will then announce new and old business regarding affiliates.

- Should there be any new business, the Lawyer will, in junction with the congregation, complete all work needed, until it is decided that the business is done, or should be bypassed——to be decided by all present voting GotRT members.

- The Lawyer will then collect all GotRT documents.

- Should there be no further business, The President will tap the gavel four times, executively ending the meeting.

2.2. The above procedure will be followed at any time the congregation deems it prudent to, and whenever it is possible to complete the full procedure without interruption.

2.3. Should there be an impromptu or unplanned meeting, there shall be no application of parliamentary procedures outside of calling the meeting to order and adjourning said meaning.

2.4. Violations of these procedures may be punishable via temporary suspensions of power and/or voting capacity.

2.5. Should a meeting be interrupted by an exigent circumstance, all GotRT business which occurred shall be void, including, but not limited to, statements, signatures, stamps, and documentation.

6. Recordkeeping and Records

6.1. The Office of the Clerk, constitutionally charged with the accurate keeping of meeting and congregation minutes and their appropriate handling, shall henceforth also be charged with;

6.1.1. The keeping of a record of debts incurred by the GotRT as a whole,

6.1.1.1. The various Offices shall henceforth issue receipts of expenditures and revenue relating to the GotRT.

6.1.2. The keeping of a record of executive actions by the President and the Deputy,

6.1.3. The keeping of a record of infractions of the GotRT code,

6.1.4. The replacement of lost records,

6.1.5. The installment of a centralized GotRT record-keeping system,

6.1.6. The installment of record-keeping agents in the other various departments,

6.1.6.1. Which shall be made through appropriations made by a congregationally approved document,

6.1.6.2. Which is not to infringe on the operations of that department,

6.1.6.3. At such time as a full congregation of GotRT members shall appoint by law or order.

6.2. All records kept henceforth must be made public and inconspicuous on the digital website——https://www.GotRT.org—— kept by the Office of the lawyer.

6.2.1. Said website is to be managed by the Office of the Lawyer, with the following stipulations;

6.2.1.1. The website shall have the following;

6.2.1.1.1. All documents approved by a full congregation of GotRT members,

6.2.1.1.2. All records as approved by the Clerk,

6.2.1.1.3. All members and their Offices, if applicable,

6.2.1.1.4. All physical and digital contact points maintained by the GotRT,

6.2.1.1.5. Locations owned, managed, operated, or previously such by the GotRT.

6.2.1.2. The website may not be defamatory of any GotRT member, affiliate, employee, or other person.

6.2.1.3. Records on the website must be kept to date with the latest planned meeting.

6.2.2. The website is the property of Tristan Reed, who is allowed to restrict access by the various Offices, and the public, at any time.

6.2.2.1. In such case as the website shall be taken offline or otherwise be made unavailable, either by Tristan Reed or from other cause, other physical or digital contact points must be available for GotRT use.

6.2.2.1.1. Such contact points must be made inconspicuous on the website and be known to all GotRT members, affiliates, and employees.

6.2.2.1.1.1. Preparations for use of these contact points must be made by each of those listed, and must meet the following minimums;

6.2.2.1.1.1.1. Able to take the traffic of the website,

6.2.2.1.1.1.2. Available at all times,

6.2.2.1.1.1.3. Regularly reviewed for flaws and reactivity,

6.2.2.1.1.1.4. Publicly available,

6.2.2.1.1.1.5. And approved by a full congregation of voting GotRT members

6.2.2.1.1.2. Should any secondary contact point be made inaccessible when the website is online, the contact point should be made accessible at the earliest convince of its respective Office.

6.2.2.1.1.3. Should any secondary contact point be made inaccessible when the website is offline, the accessibility of the contact point shall become the foremost work priority of its respective Office.

6.3. All records kept must be kept physically and digitally.

6.3.1. Should there be no physical copy, it should be printed at least twice, and one copy given to the Office of the Clerk, and to the Lawyer apiece.

6.3.2. Should there be no digital copy, it should be scanned and given to the Lawyer for dissemination through the GotRT.

6.4. All records shall be formatted in alignment with procedure set out by agreeance from the Offices of the Clerk and the Lawyer.

6.4.1. Should any GotRT records be found to be made incongruous with applicable regulations for when they were created, they shall be made anew by either the Offices of the Clerk or the Lawyer.

7. Enrollment

7.1. For the enrollment to be a GotRT member, the following considerations and minimums must be met, the person must;

7.1.1. Have attained to the age of fourteen and,

7.1.2. Have been accepted by a full congregation of members and,

7.1.3. Have no objections to standing GotRT regulations and,

7.1.4. Have never been duly convicted of a felony crime,

7.1.4.1. In this case, duly convicted means to have been tried and convicted under an internationally accepted court of law, with no objections from their state of citizenship, and with their rights intact.

7.1.5. And have never been duly convicted of more than ten counts of truancy, in any form, by any institution or group which they have been a member of.

7.2. Henceforth, the appointment of officers, besides that of the President, shall be on an as-needed basis, meaning that only when a member dies, abdicates, or is deposed will an election be held.

7.2.1. These elections will require the following;

7.2.1.1. The participation of all voting members,

7.2.1.2. The acceptance from three fifths of all members on their results,

7.2.1.3. The easy transfer of power from the previous officer to the new officer,

7.2.1.4. And the transfer of all properties to the new officer from the previous, which are pertinent to the functioning of the office, and not owned privately by the previous officer.

7.2.1.4.1. Should an exchange of funds or properties between new and previous officers become necessary, it will be overseen and proctored by any willing third party which the GotRT will enter into contract with, or by the GISA-GOTRT sponsor.

7.2.2. If there is a delay in transfer of power which is sufficient to halt business, the Office[s] will become defunct and unsupported monetarily until a new, duly elected officer takes on the required role.

7.2.3. Disputes in an election should be brought before the GISA-GOTRT sponsor, who will decide how to resolve the issue as amicably as possible.

7.2.3.1. If the GISA-GOTRT sponsor position is vacant, and there is no oversight necessary from GISA staff, the duties will pass to any willing third party, who the President, the Deputy, or the Lawyer will contract.

7.2.3.2. If there is a need for GISA-based oversight, and the GISA-GOTRT sponsor position is vacant, the most available GISA staff member who is willing to act in the stead of the previous GISA-GOTRT sponsor, shall act as such until the position is refilled by the original GISA staff member is able.

8. Deposition

8.1. Should any officer be duly convicted by a GotRT Tribunal, and be sentenced to be deposed from their office, they must;

8.1.1. Relinquish their seat as Officer,

8.1.2. Not name any heir to their seat,

8.1.3. Allow the democratic process to name their replacement to flow without their interruption,

8.1.3.1. The naming of the replacement will be the responsibility of the President or the Deputy, and the named person will;

8.1.3.1.1. Hold the titles and powers of the office until the next meeting,

8.1.3.1.2. Not abuse their office for personal gain,

8.1.3.1.3. Not bloat to the deposed member,

8.1.4. Amicably attend all future meetings as a non-voting GotRT member,

8.1.4.1. Should they not, they will be expelled from the GotRT, not to be readmitted for two years.

9. Expulsion

9.1. The minimums for a member to be permanently expelled from the GotRT are as follows;

9.1.1. Duly convicted by a GotRT Tribunal and sentenced to be deposed or,

9.1.2. Four times intentionally and consecutively absent from a planned meeting or,

9.1.3. Five times intentionally and non-consecutively absent from a planned meeting within one year or,

9.1.4. Duly convicted by a local, state, or federal court of committing a felony.

9.1.4.1. In this case, ‘duly convicted’ means that the court is not contested in its findings, by the general public or by another court.

9.1.4.1.1. Here, the ‘general public’ means the popular opinion of the constituents where the conviction took place.

9.1.4.1.2. Here, the ‘other court’ means any court of equal or higher power having interpretation of the case on its docket or arraigned which would be implicative of the findings of the case itself.

9.2. The minimums to expel an affiliate are that are to have been;

9.2.1. Been duly audited and graded twice below 51/100 or,

9.2.2. Been duly brought before a GotRT Tribunal and been duly convicted of any three infractions of a standing GotRT statute within one year.

9.2.3.Duly convicted by a local, state, or federal court of committing a felony.

9.2.3.1. In this case, ‘duly convicted’ means that the court is not contested in its findings, by the general public or by another court.

9.2.3.1.1. Here, the ‘general public’ means the popular opinion of the constituents where the conviction took place.

9.2.3.1.2. Here, the ‘other court’ means any court of equal or higher power having interpretation of the case on its docket or arraigned which would be implicative of the findings of the case itself.

9.3. After any minimum for expulsion has been met, the GISA-GOTRT sponsor must hold a meeting with the GotRT Tribunal, and inform the expelled of their crime[s], the judgment given, and the limitation of re-enrollment to the GotRT.

9.3.1. Should the GISA-GOTRT sponsor position be vacant for any reason, then the role will be filled by any available third party, who will act as signatory.

9.4. No expulsion shall be enacted for any of the following reasons;

9.4.1. Temporary emotional distress,

9.4.2. Physical disability,

9.4.3. Low popular support,

9.4.4. Personal gain,

9.4.5. Political gain,

9.4.6. ‘Culling’ of the voting majority or minority of any issue,

9.4.7. Signature manipulation,

9.4.8. Social appeasement,

9.4.9. Or for any other discriminatory reason.
